

TRACK AND TRAIN

W. J. Tragasser sent his friends cards from Ogden, Utah, where he and Conductor Charley Rider were last Saturday. They were going from there to Salt Lake City.

George Young of Marsland was in Alliance Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Young says his lumber yard at Marsland is doing a fine business.

Mrs. Mary Bews of Deadwood is a guest at the home of Dispatcher and Mrs. Cox in Alliance. Mrs. Cox was reported quite sick the past week.

Brakeman Judson, who for some time was in the hospital, has made a rapid recovery. He reported for work Wednesday and went flagging on Weidenhamer's run. Mr. Weidenhamer will go braking for Conductor Gaddis.

James Ponath, the little son of Conductor Ponath, has been suffering for some time with rheumatism. Mrs. Ponath is making arrangements to take the little fellow to Hot Springs to see if the hot baths will relieve him.

Conductor Swift of the high line is taking a short vacation. He is being relieved by Extra Conductor Horn of Deadwood.

J. P. Dalley, train master on the south line, was in Alliance last Friday and Saturday on Company business.

Mr. Thurston, tie and timber inspector for the Burlington, was in Deadwood on Company business this week.

Superintendent Weidenhamer was in Deadwood this week and was accompanied over the high line by Assistant Supt. Hollorf.

Fred Biedermann, brother of Dispatcher Biedermann of Deadwood, was thrown from a delivery wagon last Saturday. One wrist was broken and he was badly bruised up. Dr. Bellwood set the wrist and soon had him resting nicely. He will be out in a few days.

The firemen have every reason to be proud of the grand ball they gave in the opera house, February 14. The decorations in the hall were red, white and green lanterns and bunting, and were beautiful. The hall was packed with people. The reception committee looked after all the strangers, and everybody had a fine time. Over two hundred tickets were sold. The firemen have certainly shown that they know how to entertain.

Switchman Driscoll, who had planned to go to New York, was among the men who were sent to Galesburg. He writes that there will be work there for at least two months.

Engineer Sam Tillet has been enjoying a few days' visit from his mother, Mrs. Tillet, of Denver.

Machinist and Mrs. George Davis are now nicely settled in their new bungalow on Toluca Ave.

Brakeman Ray Mark has a brother from Fort Collins making him a short visit.

Brakeman and Mrs. R. E. McKenzie were very much pleased last Saturday by the arrival of Mrs. McKenzie's father, Mr. Callahan, of Lincoln.

coln. Mr. Callahan may decide to locate here.

Owing to quiet business the locals have all been put back into the pool.

Mrs. Rocky and her two daughters are visiting relatives and friends in Grand Island.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Johnson left on No. 42 Sunday night for Waverly, Penn. They had not planned to go until later, but they received word of the illness of Mr. Johnson's father.

Mrs. Rennau is very sick at her home in this city. She is having the best of care and we hope will soon be better.

Mr. and Mrs. John Adams of Sheridan, Wyo., and Miss Helen arrived in Alliance Wednesday noon for a short visit at the home of Machinist Davis. From here they will go to Lincoln and Havelock, where they have relatives. Miss Helen Adams will remain in Alliance until their return.

Mr. and Mrs. Magill left on No. 42 Wednesday night for a three weeks' visit in Ottumwa, Iowa.

The Ladies' Auxiliary to the Engineers will hold their Kensington Thursday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. F. Houser.

Electrician Carl Rocky is making arrangements for a trip to the Pacific coast.

Mrs. Gus Holden, who has been visiting at the Fitzpatrick home, left for Sheridan Tuesday noon.

Traveling Engineer Morrison, who went to Chicago on a Company case ten days ago, writes that court is now in session and that he hopes to get home soon.

Engineer Howard and wife, of Deadwood, are visiting relatives in this city.

Fireman Jack Stephens left for Lincoln Sunday night. From there he will go on to Omaha. We wonder what for?

Engineer and Mrs. Jim Garrett passed through here Sunday night on their way to St. Joe, Mo. On their return they will stop here for a visit at the Fitzpatrick home.

Master Mechanic and Mrs. Phelix Kennedy of Sheridan were here over Sunday for a short visit with their son who is a student in the St. Agnes Academy. They are on their way to Texas for a six weeks' vacation.

Mrs. W. S. Rosenkranz has gone to Crawford for a visit with Mrs. L. A. Baschky.

Mrs. Harry Hamilton, wife of Engineer Hamilton, of the south line, has been very sick the past week.

Mrs. Arnold of Edgemont is visiting at the Rocky home.

The firemen and brakemen, who were sent to Galesburg write back that they have to pay cash in advance for their room and board. This would be much better in Alliance.

take one incident that happened this last pay day. A brakeman with a very pitiful story of a sick wife, with whom this climate did not agree, had secured board and room for six weeks. On pay day morning he went south, met the pay car and drew his check. Later on he signed over his time check to keep from having it garnished. The people he owes here have to keep right on working whether the climate agrees with them or not.

Miss Minta Painter, a sister of Fireman Boyd Painter, is a new clerk in the Norton store. She took the position made vacant by the resignation of Mrs. Holloway.

Mrs. C. E. Bennett was the charming hostess at a card party at her home last Thursday afternoon. About twenty ladies were present. The delicious five course lunch was greatly enjoyed. This is the first time Mrs. Bennett has been "At home" to her friends since her return from Ravenna.

After the dance Friday night Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gantz entertained a party of ten at Holsten's. A very appetizing lunch was served in Joe's best style.

At the basket social given by the choir of the Episcopal church, the baskets, forty-two in number, brot one hundred and seventy-five dollars. We call this "going some."

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Munger's two-year-old boy was taken sick one day this week. A physician was called and the little fellow escaped a spell of pneumonia, although he came near having it.

Hon. W. W. Wood had the pleasure this week of a two days' visit with his brother, James A. Wood, of Appleton, Wis., who arrived in Alliance Tuesday morning en route from a visit to the Pacific coast.

We are ready for spring, having received a package of flower seeds from the U. S. Department of Agriculture, sent out from Washington under the postal frank of the junior U. S. Senator from Nebraska.

The Herald has another Canada subscriber. We have received notice that the address of Mrs. C. H. Preston has been changed from 2802 Jackson street, Seattle, to general delivery, Vancouver, B. C.

To The Herald's already fine list of correspondents from the country and towns surrounding Alliance, we are pleased this week to add one from Lakeside, who will furnish us news from that neighborhood. The first installment of the same appears in this issue.

R. C. Leese, formerly chief night dispatcher at Alliance but now nicely located with his family in Salt Lake City where he is engaged in railroad work, visited with his many Alliance friends a few days last week, leaving for home on Thursday night.

Miss Bertha Coates, who resides eight miles this side of Broadwater and teaches near her home, was in Alliance on business over Saturday recently. She is evidently interested in music as well as teaching. While in Alliance she purchased a Byron piano of Mrs. Ida M. Ross.

Rev. D. W. Montgomery, pastor evangelist of the Presbyterian church for northwestern Nebraska, returned Monday from an extended trip covering more than two weeks, during which time he visited towns along the line of the Union Pacific and the Guernsey branch of the Burlington.

E. M. Macken, one of The Herald subscribers at Platte Center, Nebr., writes us that he is expecting to move out of this state. He does not state where he is expecting to go but we are wondering if this winter's cold weather gave him the southern fever as it did a good many others.

We learn that Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Hernan will terminate a five or six weeks' visit in Iowa about the first of March and return to Alliance. They have been having a splendid time visiting among friends where time visiting among friends where eye state. On the second of this month they attended the golden wedding anniversary of Mrs. Herman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hahn, at Mallard, Iowa. An immense crowd was present, consisting of children, grand children and other relatives and friends.

Carl Rocky and "Shorty" Thomas left Alliance Tuesday, headed west. The latter's destination was Sheridan and the former said he intended to keep going till he reached the coast. Elmer Younkin is filling the position held by Rocky as electrician at the Crystal.

Rev. R. H. Houseman of Omaha, educational secretary of Sunday school work for Nebraska of the Presbyterian board, is in Alliance today and will hold a conference on Sunday school work at the First Presbyterian church tonight.

Miss Sarah Patton of Hiawatha, Kansas, visited at the home of Rev. and Mrs. A. L. Godfrey from last Saturday till yesterday. She had been making an extended trip thru the west and was en route home. Being an old college friend of Mrs. Godfrey, she of course found it very agreeable to stop a few days in Alliance.

As a reminder to stockmen we mention that Thursday, February 29, is the date of the grand public sale of registered Hereford cattle at Grand Island, advertised in last week's Herald. The sale will begin at 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

Mrs. Bowles, proprietor of the New York Hat Shop, and Miss Pacia Brennan left last Saturday for Saint Louis, expecting to be gone a week or ten days. St. Louis is one of the leading wholesale millinery centers and will give the ladies an excellent opportunity to post up on the latest spring styles. They will order a spring stock of goods while in the city.

Rev. C. E. McFall came over from Gordon Monday to remain in Alliance a few days and go from here to Reno to attend the dedication services Saturday and Sunday. Mr. McFall is pastor of the Lavacca circuit of the M. E. church and reports a successful revival meeting at Newman Chapel, one of his appointments. As a result of the revival meetings there have already been several accessions to the church and more to follow.

We wish to call attention to the advertisement in this issue of the Alliance Tailoring Company of which Ira Phillips is now manager, assisted by Dick Shute who ably assisted E. T. Enyeart when he was manager. When Mr. Enyeart removed from Alliance to Marsland many thought that the Alliance Tailoring Company would close their shop but as our readers will see by their advertisement they are still doing business at the old stand.

Owing to so much sickness in the Fairview neighborhood the Frances E. Willard Memorial Day program that had been arranged for February 25 has been postponed. Further announcement will be made later.

There was a time when it would have been difficult to publish The Herald if deprived of the efficient assistance rendered by a young lady compositor whose name was then Miss Laura Miller, but there came a time when it became necessary to get out the paper without her help. Two years ago she left the employof The Herald to marry Conductor Clyde E. Bullock. Although deprived of the services which she formerly rendered the paper, it still has the help of a cordial word from her occasionally. She and her little son Lloyd favored the office with a call yesterday which was much appreciated by the entire force.

Mrs. Thomas Strupper was taken seriously ill last Saturday with la grippe. We are pleased to note that she is somewhat better at this writing. Her daughter, Mrs. M. L. Phares, came up from Bridgeport yesterday to remain with her until she is convalescent.

The "Big 3" is a whirlwind. Watch papers for further particulars.
